A truly beautiful example of an Ibiza Style villa, set in mature gardens and located in Paichi amongst villas of similar quality. This property is eight years old, just oozes quality and has been sympathetically designed and furnished throughout. The villa has been designed to wrap around the custom design pool with views from all of the various terraces to the sea at Fishermans Cove and over the hills. From the moment you enter the property through the chunky solid wood door you begin an architectural adventure. There are two pedestrian entrances to the property, one the main entry door with intercom and the other through a similar wooden door from the two vehicle car port, up a path between two areas with grass and palms and you arrive at the entry porch with double solid wooden doors. Upon entry you cannot fail to notice the clever use of glass, not only to add light to the interior of the villa but also to add the greenery of the garden to co...
